Duties and Responsibilities:

- Teach students in assigned classes in accordance with course descriptions and/or learning outcomes, the course syllabus, and institutional policies and procedures;
- Provide students with a syllabus that includes required institutional policies, course objectives, materials, and methods of evaluation;
- Provide a workload schedule showing teaching and office hours;
- Certify student attendance in classes by the established deadlines;
- Maintain accurate and complete course records;
- Submit final grades by the established deadlines;

- Communicate with and provide feedback to students in a timely fashion;
- Develop course curriculum and instructional materials (individually or collaboratively);
- Use knowledge of diverse communities and skill sets to diversify teaching methods and delivery of content in instruction;
- Provide effective instruction to facilitate student learning in all classes taught;
- Evaluate and assess student learning regularly in all classes taught;
- Participate in assessment activities at the college and university and assist students in achieving designated course objectives or learning outcomes;
- Use appropriate technologies to enhance classroom or online instruction and to achieve established course objectives or learning outcomes;
- Regularly evaluate teaching methods and use data to continually improve instructional strategies.

Skills/Abilities and other responsibilities

- Leadership, problem-solving and personal motivation;
- Analytical, interpersonal and communication skills;
- Motivated, self-starter, and able to work independently;
- Strong Computer literacy skills, especially in Microsoft Office Suite;
- Ability to lead and promote team spirit and motivate others positively;
- Scholarly work/research-driven and publication.
- Maintain knowledge and competence in the appropriate academic discipline or workforce field;
- Maintain and uphold any required professional certification or licensure in the appropriate academic or technical discipline, where appropriate;
- Remain current with technological and pedagogical advances that promote continuous improvement of student learning
- Participate in a variety of professional development activities and in one's own performance review.
